DISPOSITION OF BRITISH VESSEL ARRANGED SOON

MESSAGE TO TUCKER

A Full Report of the Seizure of the Ship Has Been Submitted to Mr. Daugherty by Mr. Tucker; No Irregular Actions on Part of Ship Have Been Found.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Instructions covering the disposition of the British schooner, Messenger of Peace, seized last week by the coast guard with a cargo of liquor aboard off the North Carolina coast will probably be sent to U. S. District Attorney Tucker at Raleigh, N. C., today by Attorney General Daugherty it was said at justice department.

A full report of the seizure of the vessel has been submitted to the Attorney General by Mr. Tucker. The explanation is said to cover the ship's recent movements, its paper and the circumstances surrounding its seizure.

Mr. Tucker is said to have reported he acted in co-operation with Prohibition Director Kohloss who is said to have received instructions from Washington. Mr. Kohloss, it is said, was instructed to seize the vessel last week and though no report has since been received from him it is thought he acted in accordance with his orders. Beyond reports received from Portsmouth, N. C., which declared papers of the Messenger of Peace were apparently in proper shape no other reports have been received.

DENBY SHOT QUAIL WITHOUT PERMIT

State Commissioner of Game and Fisheries in Virginia Asks Secretary for Explanation.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 9.—A communication has been addressed to the Secretary of the navy by state commissioner of game and fisheries asking the secretary to explain why he hunted in Virginia without a license.

The communication was sent to the secretary by M. D. Hart secretary of the state department of game and fisheries. Accompanying it was a clipping from a newspaper under a Fredericksburg date line declaring Secretary Denby enjoyed a successful hunt at Point farm in Stafford county, that the cabinet officer was accompanied by Col. Outts and Major Kingsberry and took back to Washington a fine lot of quail and duck some of them for President Harding.

PEPPER TAKES PENROSE'S PLACE

Philadelphia, Jan. 9.—Geo. Wharton Pepper today appointed U. S. Senator by Governor Sproul to succeed the late Boise Penrose. Under the law the appointment stands until a successor is elected at the November election.

Governor Sproul in announcing the appointment said that in order there may be a full understanding of the situation he expected Mr. Pepper to be a candidate to fill the unexpired term.

Geo. Wharton Pepper is not unknown to many members of the Senate. During the time the Versailles treaty was under consideration Mr. Pepper attracted wide attention by opposing the ratification of the league of nations covenant in joint debate on the public platform with Senator Hitchcock in this city and Senator Palmer in Indianapolis.

Like Boise Penrose, Mr. Pepper comes from an old Philadelphia family. He will be 55 years old on March 16.

HARVEY NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH IN AUTO. ACCIDENT

SEVERELY BRUISED

Axe of Machine in Which the American Ambassador Was Riding Broke and Mr. Harvey Was Thrown to the Ground; Unable to Attend to Official Duties at Present.

Cannes, Jan. 9.—George Harvey, American ambassador to Great Britain narrowly escaped death here today in an automobile accident. Accompanied by Richard Crane, former American minister of Slovakia, and Wickham Steed editor of the London Times, Ambassador Harvey was on his way for a round of golf.

The axle of the machine broke and Mr. Harvey was thrown heavily to the road. Physicians who were hurriedly summoned found him suffering from the shock and severe bruises on the back, where he struck the road. The physicians expressed the opinion he would be confined to his bed for several days and said he should not attempt to attend to any official duties. Mr. Crane was uninjured but Mr. Steed suffered from bruises and shock.

BOLL WEEVIL IN COCKLEBURS

What is declared by cotton men to be the most important discovery in recent years concerning the boll weevil, which last year caused much loss to cotton farmers in the South was made known today when a farmer living near this city brought to the city a large number of the bugs which he had discovered in the roots of cocklebur stalks. In four stalks a total of 136 of the insects were found, the farmer said. Cotton men are becoming interested and investigations are to be made. It also indicated that the matter would be referred to state authorities on the insect and plans discussed for the abolition of it from the roots of this plant. Some were of the opinion that the weevils have for years been wintering in cocklebur roots. Farmers are already discussing the probability that if the roots of the plants are pulled up and burned the weevils will be killed out.—Oklahoma Exchange.

BIRTH.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Barrett, a son, weight ten pounds and four ounces.

MR. HADLEY

The condition of Mr. J. C. Hadley, who is ill, remains about the same.

MR. BEASLEY DIED

SUDDENLY SATURDAY.
Mr. R. B. Beasley, a farmer of Evansdale, died suddenly in Tomlinson and Company's store on Barnes street, late Saturday afternoon. Mr. Beasley came into the store and sat down. Suddenly his body fell forward. Persons rushing to the man's assistance found that he was dead. Heart failure probably caused his death.
Mr. Beasley was 65 years of age. He is survived by his wife and several children. The remains were taken to Apex where burial will take place today.

EUROPE TO LEAD IN DISCUSSION OF ECONOMIC PROBLEM

AMERICA INTERESTED

Hoover Suggests the Ter Mullen Plan Which Calls for the Listing of All Available Assets of the Business Men of Each Nation and Issuance of Bonds Against Those Assets.

(By David Lawrence.)
(Copyright, 1922 by The Daily Times.)

Washington, Jan. 7.—Economic reconstruction in Europe cannot come too soon to please the United States government and while the issuance of an invitation to America to attend the big economic conference to be held in Genoa, Italy, implies very little at this time, nevertheless opinion is crystallizing that the real plan for world relief must come out of French and British diplomacy.

Prime Minister Lloyd George's emphasis on the necessity of Europe helping itself without depending too much on America is looked upon here as a direct sequel of the Washington (Continued on page three.)

RE-ELECTION OF DE VALERA MOVED IN DAIL EIREANN

VOICED OPPOSITION

The Adoption of the Treaty of Peace is Now a Constitutional Fact and Michael Collins Said Re-election of De Valera Would Make Dail Laughing Stock.

Dublin, Jan. 9.—The proposal to re-elect Eamon De Valera president of the Irish Republic was defeated in the Dail Eireann by a vote of 58 to 60.

Dublin, Jan. 9.—As soon as the Dail Eireann was convened this morning Eamon De Valera arose and placed his resignation as president of the Irish Republic formally before the house.

Mrs. Thos. J. Clarke moved the re-election of Mr. De Valera as president. Liam Mellows seconded the motion.

Michael Collins, one of the leaders in support of the Irish treaty, which was ratified Saturday said that no one in the Dail wished to be put in the position of opposing Mr. De Valera. He pointed out the Dail now faced with problem of taking over the government and he suggested a committee to be chosen from both sides of the controversy to keep the peace. Work and not talk was now required, he said.

Arthur Griffith said the question to the treaty was now constitutionally finished.

After the renomination of Mr. De Valera for president Michael Collins said he would not object to the re-election but if Mr. De Valera were re-elected the people would turn out the Dail as the Dail would then be the laughing stock of the world.

SOUTH DEMANDING JUST TARIFF BUT NO SPECIAL FAVOR

WHOLE SOUTH AWAKE

The President of the Southern Tariff Association Appearing Before a Senate Committee Says Europe Because She is Broke Will Produce Cheapest Goods in World.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Southern business men have awakened to the need of a protective tariff the senate finance committee was told today by John H. Kirby, president of Southern Tariff association.

"We are not following our politicians on this question any longer," said Mr. Kirby, "The whole south is awakened on this question."

"All of you have awakened except the voters," observed Senator McLain, Republican of Connecticut.

"Oh, the voters are awakened," replied the witness, "You saw that happen in the last election."

Mr. Kirby said the south was asking for justice not favors. Acting Chairman McCumber declared the tariff question would be treated as a national and not sectional one.

Likening conditions of Europe as those which obtained in the south immediately after the civil war, Mr. Kirby declared, "because Europe is broke she will produce the choicest goods."

"Unless the United States takes steps to protect itself there will be great distress over the country with millions of workers out of employment."

SENATOR NEWBERRY TAKES THE FLOOR IN OWN DEFENSE

DECLARES INNOCENCE

The Republican Senator from Michigan Says He Had No Knowledge of the Collection or Expenditure of the Campaign Fund Spent in His Behalf.

Washington, Jan. 9.—A sweeping declaration of his innocence was made by Senator Newberry, Republican of Michigan.

Taking the floor in his own defense in the ouster proceedings brought by Henry Ford, the Democratic Candidate, Senator Newberry emphatically denied personal knowledge of the collection or expenditure of the large campaign fund spent in his belief.

"As God is my witness I am not to this day and hour conscious of having done in connection with the primary campaign or general election in 1918 in the state of Michigan a single act that was or is in any way unlawful, dishonorable or corrupt and this I say to the Senate of the United States without resentment.

"Upon these facts as I then believed them to be and as I now believed them to be I shall abide the result with clearer conscience." Mr. Newberry added.

His colleague, Senator Townsend announced last Saturday Mr. Newberry would submit to questioning by Senators but not heckling. A business man and not experienced speaker Mr. Newberry, a short sturdy figure with glasses over his eyes said he desired to give information he had personally regarding the charges made against his manner of election.

"I cannot remain silent any longer during the consideration of my right to represent the State of Michigan. I did not volunteer to appear before the committee of the Senate which took testimony of this matter because I really had no information that would assist in the investigation of the charges filed by my opponent. It seems to me the time has come to speak.

As my colleagues in this body known and as is also well known by my associates and constituents in the state of Michigan I am not accustomed to public speech and whatever service I have been able to render to my country is along lines entirely remote from oral debate."

CONSIDER STEPS TO SAVE TIMBER

The Timber is Being Consumed Four Times as Rapidly as it is Being Grown is Report.

Washington, Jan. 9.—Timber in the United States is being consumed four times as rapidly as it is being grown W. B. Greely, chief of the forestry service told the house a natural committee, designed to conserve the country's forestry supplies.

The Snell-McCormick forestry which provides for co-operation between federal and state governments to conserve timber represents almost the only practical and opportune solution of the timber supply question.
